Isis Cricket Club Data Privacy Policy

What information do we collect?

We collect your name and email address in order to:-

- Send out club announcements
- Invite payers to let us know about their availability for games
- Maintain club statistics and playing records

We may also take pictures of Isis CC players as part of team photos at various games, tours or club events.

Do we share personally identifiable data with other organisations?

We do not sell or share information with other organizations for marketing or targeted advertising purposes. However, the Isis CC website (www.isiscc.org.uk) is publicly accessible and your name is displayed on the website, should you have ever played for Isis CC

Who has access to my data?

- Player names and cricketing stats of all players who have played at least one game for the club as a member or guest are publicly available on the Isis CC website
- Isis CC holds the eMail address of all current members and the community of occasional players who wish to be invited to play or who wish to be informed of club activities. These are held exclusively as contact records in the club's email account, and only the Secretary has access to that account or to add or amend those contact records. This information is available to delegated club committee members for the purposes of making announcements.
- Phone numbers and personal email addresses are excluded from all public information on the club website.

How can I get my data amended or deleted?

If you choose to have your data removed from the club's records and its website, or to be removed from our mailing list, send email for the attention of our Data Protection Officer to isiscricket@gmail.com
